

Function

Verbal Behavior

- Social vocalizations
 - Talking to communicate something to another person
 - Coughing to get someone's attention

- Signing to someone to communicate information

- Writing to someone to communicate information

- Social gestures that communicate information to someone such as
 - rubbing chin to show thinking or agreeing
 - winking one eye to show affection

- Morse Code message to communicate information

NON-Verbal Behavior

- Non-social noises such as
 - coughing due to dry throat
 - sneezing due to itchy nose
 - clearing your throat to relieve hoarseness

- Cracking your knuckles and flexing your fingers to relief stiffness

- Doodling while on the phone to pass time

- Non-social gestures such as
 - rubbing your chin because it itches
 - winking one eye to relieve dryness

- Tapping on the table out of boredom